

AASTMT Public Activities

(Executive Education Programmes)

1. PQI organized executive educational programs for companies:
 - 1.1. Programs for capacity building of SIKLAM Company covering ISO 50001:2011 Energy management Standard, Food Defense and communication skills.
 - 1.2. Programs for calibers from the Ministry of Manpower in the field of Health and Safety covering topics on ISO 45001:2018 Standard for Occupational Health & safety, Advanced Topics in Occupational Health and Safety and NEBOSH.
 - 1.3. Programs addressed to develop the Human Resources at Alexandria Governorate General Court covering the topic “Formulating the Vision and Mission of Human Resources Department.”

2. PQI conducted a number of programmed workshops to serve a variety of sectors across Egypt in the following:
 - 2.1. “Healthcare Quality Management” for Al-Salman hospital at Port Said governorate and Mansoura Medical Syndicate
 - 2.2. “Recent trends and quality systems in hospital design according to the Egyptian construction standards” for the Directorate of Health Affairs in Alexandria and North and West Delta Branch of Health Insurance
 - 2.3. “Risk management at Laboratories” for pharmaceutical companies.
 - 2.4. “Hospital Accreditation” for the Directorate of Health Affairs at Menoufia, for students of Menoufia University, Abu Qir General Hospital in Alexandria.
 - 2.5. “Governmental excellence and Quality accreditation” for Tanta University staff.

3. The Arab Institute for Leadership Development “AILD” is specialized in delivering the highest professional quality of leadership development programs to current and future leaders, targeting all levels, nationally, regionally, and internationally, in both public and private sectors. It delivers specialized and customized leadership development programs that are designed for specific organizational needs to help leaders understand and face today’s business challenges effectively. All programs are charged.
 - 3.1. The distinguished leadership development program is the major program at the institute. It mainly addresses managerial to high level leaders at the Egyptian navy, ministry of defense and the Arab industrial organization. It is a tailored program to serve the needs of each organization with common topics (ICT - sociology - economics - politics- law - management). It was designed with ecole national d' administration in France in 2015.

- 3.2. AILD serves the African countries with tailored workshops for “Essence of leadership and leadership management “.

<http://www.aast.edu/en/institutes/aild/index.php>

4. Technical and Vocational Institute (TVI) provides vocational training through advanced applied educational programs to fulfill industry demands. These programs are accredited by Person BTEC. Technical and Vocational Institute leads towards “skills developments that meet industry needs and help young people prosper” through quality improvement exchanges.

http://www.aast.edu/en/institutes/tvi/contenttemp.php?page_id=9000154